Bill _____ Resolution XX

#SB-87s-318

1. Whereas, the Florida Legislature during it's 1985-86 Legis-
2. lative Session approved 1987 Summer tuition and fees
3. be the same as Fall and Spring matriculation fees, and
4. Whereas, this legislative action will generate $7.6 million in
5. new dollars from the Summer fee increase, and
6. Whereas, the Summer increase is over $1 million more than the
7. 1985-86 tuition increases for State University Systems,
8. and
9. Whereas, with the proposed 46% cut in federal financial aid, and
10. Whereas, the Florida Legislature advocates quality with acces-
11. sibility, and
12. Whereas, the Board of Regents and the Governor's additional
13. $6.4 million tuition increase request will hit instate
14. freshmen and sophomores at 12.35% and out-of-state lower
15. level students at 21.54% plus significant increases
16. for graduate and medical students, and
17. Whereas, the proposed increases will cost anywhere from $150 to 18. $2,600.
19. Therefore, let it be respectfully resolved that the University
20. of North Florida Student Government Association on behalf
21. of 6700 students urge the Florida Legislature to "Just Say
22. No to a double tuition increase."
23. Let it be further resolved, that other funding sources in the 24. private sector be encouraged to help pay for some of the
25. costs of higher education.
